Humorous Department.

Battle Scarred Heroine.-There is a rather attractive young woman in Cleveland who had the misfortune to fall down stairs a few months ago and fracture one of her knees so badly that the limb had to be amputated, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. The young woman, of course, walks with the aid of crutches. She is not in the least sensitive about the matter, and she doesn't mind informing properly introduced people of the accident which maimed her. She has set a limit, however, and she was compelled to use it one afternoon recently. She got into a Payne avenue car and found herself in the same seat with a sharp-eyed woman who seemed to take a whole lot of interest in her and her crutches. She scrutinized the young woman's face carefully for a couple of minutes, then and storm coats. turned her attention to the workmantook the liberty to handle curiously. Then she looked the young woman over again and leaned over to her: "D'ye mind tellin' me how you lost your leg?" she asked. "Not in the least," responded the lines. young woman, amiably. "I lost it in the battle of San Juan Hill."

One Thing She Could Do .- One Saturday afternoon recently a frail little man started to cross Broadway at Forty-second street just when all sorts of fast moving vehicles were whirling their matinee patrons up Broadway. At the same instant a very fleshy lady started from the curb directly opposite with the same purpose in mind.

By remarkable luck both succeeded in escaping the passing wheels, but as fate would have it, the little man, whose eyes were busy ogling the traffic on either side of him, darted plump into the oncoming woman at the middle of the street. The result was a sickening collision, with the little man down and out.

"You should have looked where you were going," said the fleshy woman, bending over the victim on the curb, to which he had been carried by a traffic policeman. "But is there anything I can do for you?"

"Yes," he replied faintly, opening his eyes a moment, "get the number of the automobile that struck me,"-Lippincott's Magazine.

In dozens of districts in the south land for pecan orchards may be had at from $19 to $25 an acre, as well located and as productive as are to be found anywhere. By the selection of the proper variety of nut and proper care in handling the orchard there is no question as to the fine profits which can be made within a few years. A twelve-year-old orchard is just reachyears or more. Under the best methods in vogue today it can be made productive after five or six years .- Yazoo

Polite and Agreeable.-A well known New Yorker, now dead, who during his lifetime bore the appellation "Silent," was accustomed to employ various means to deliver himself from bores and time wasters.

On one occasion, when the New Yorker was putting in his vacation in New England, there was one native so modeling done on last year's wardrobe bold as to visit the taciturn man at

10+ +00 AA 00+ THE YORKVILLE ENQUIRER IS ONE OF THE MOST COMPLETE

AND SATISFACTORY FAMILY NEWSPAPERS IN THE SOUTH. It is clean, reliable, high-toned and instructive. It should be in every York County home, and is well worthy of a place in every home in the State. It has a record of more than half a century behind it, and its publishers are constantly seeking to make it more useful to its patrons. In order to extend that usefulness it is necessary to get more subscribers, and to make it worth the while of Clubmakers we are offering a liberal line of valuable premiums.

To the Clubmaker who returns and pays for the largest number of names before SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1911, at 6 o'clock p. m., we will give One Quarter Leather Top Rock Hill Buggy (Carolina Grade), valued at Ninety Dollars. To the Clubmaker who returns the second largest club under the same conditions by the date mentioned, we will give a Two Horse Piedmont Wagon, valued at $67.50.

Wagon, valued at $67.50.

The contests for these two premiums is open to all comers, regardless of place or residence. In addition to these two leading premiums, however, we will award Sixteen High Grade Sewing Machines, of two styles, one retailing at $40 and the other retailing at $30, two Machines to go to each township, excepting to the townships in which the Buggy and Wagon may be awarded.

After the Buggy and Wagon have been awarded, the Sewing Machines will be awarded in the remaining townships to the Clubmakers making the argest and second largest clubs, and the awards will be made regard the number of names in the two leading clubs. That is if the Buggy or Wagor goes to one township Clubmaker for a hundred names, more or less, and the second largest Clubmaker in that township has only two names, he or she will be entitled to a Sewing Machine. In each township where neither the Buggy nor Wagon shall be awarded, there will be awards of two Sewing Machines made to the Clubmakers having the largest and second largest clubs.

PREMIUMS. All of our readers know what the Rock Hill Buggy is. They have been running throughout this section for years, and they have never been known to fail to give satisfaction. The buggy we are offering has been purchased from Messrs. Carroll Bros., of Yorkville, the Local Agents, and is subject to all of the guarantees of the Rock Hill Buggy Company.

The Wagon is of the well known and time tested Pledmont make, and may also be seen at the store of Messrs. Carroll Bros. It has 3-inch skein and 2-inch tires and is guaranteed for a year as to material and workmanship. Messrs. Carroll Bros. stand by the guarantee. The price $67.50.

The best grade Sewing Machine offered, has high arm, drop head, hand lift, five drawers and is ball bearing. The retail price ranges as high as $40.00 and it seldom sells for less. The second grade Sewing Machine is almost as good. It is also of the drop head description, has five drawers and is practically the same as the other with the exception that it is not fitted with ball bearings.

Each Clubmaker will be held individually responsible for the payment of the amount due on all names returned by him or her. Where it is desired to stop a subscription before the close of the Club contest, the Clubmaker may do so by paying the amount due at the time of such stoppage. Where a subscription has been paid in full, it cannot be discontinued. No name will be counted in competition for a premium until the sub-scription price has been paid, nor will any premium be delivered until the Clubmaker has either paid or made satisfactory settlement for all the names the name for one year for each such payment. After a name has been entered on our books, no transfer will be permitted. This is positive and emphatic, and where Clubmakers attempt to make such transfers, they must concede our right to take such steps as may seem necessary to protect the fairness of this provision. The Clubmaker who returns names must pay for them. Clubmakers who try to return and pay for names already regularly returned by others will be called down, especially if there is evidence of an understanding between the Clubmakers. This is not for the protection of the publishers; but as a guarantee of the fairness of the competition.
